

Woodward & Lothrop.

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Mahogany-finish Chairs and Rockers to Match.

Neat designs, with inlaid backs, saddle seats, shaped arms, and very highly polished.

Special value, $3.95 each.
Regular value, $6.50.

Sixth floor, G. St.

TROULAND & KUNDAHL

1411 F Street

Expert Engraving.

French Script and Old English are the latest fads in the engraving of Wedding, Visiting, Reception and At Home Cards. We are masters of this art, and we guarantee entire satisfaction. Bring us your monogram die. MODERATE PRICES.

The Gotham Shop,

1411 F Street.

"NO CREAM TASTES LIKE FUSSELL'S."

UNIFORM purity, smoothness, and delicacy of flavor are the three qualities that maintain the reputation of Fussell's Ice Cream.

Complete delivery facilities in all portions. Call or phone.

M. T. FUSSELL

1427 N. Y. Ave. Phone M. 1513.

FIRE PROOF STORAGE.

Merchants' Transfer and Storage Co., 129-322 E. Street, Phone Main 62.

FIREPROOF STORAGE.

The greatest company in the country for the safekeeping of valuables, jewelry, and other valuables. Separate compartments, monthly.

Merchants' Transfer and Storage Co., 129-322 E. Street, Phone Main 62.

For the Fall Sewing

Rent a "Standard Rotary" its rapidity saves your time; its lightness saves your nerves. It moves on wheels without a jar. 50c a Week.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

JOSEPH H. FISKE, Mgr. 602 9th St.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLDMiss Anne Phelps Brown Weds Mr. C. H. Bradley.*CEREMONY AT ST. MARGARET'S

Bridal Couple Identified with Older Resident Society of Washington.
Daughters of Confederacy to Give Bazaar for Arlington Monument.
Engagement of Miss Long.

The marriage of Miss Anne Phelps Brown to Mr. Charles Hamilton Bradley took place yesterday afternoon at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, on Connecticut avenue, in the presence of a large company of friends, representing very completely the older resident society of the District, with which bride and bridegroom have been identified from their birth. The bride is the daughter of the late Sevelton Brown, and the bridegroom the youngest son of the late Judge Andrew C. Bradley, and a nephew of the late Alexander H. Shepley.

The floral decoration was confined to a graceful grouping of palms in the chancel, with vases of white and pink roses on the altar. During the seating of the guests, the organist gave a short recital, in which he introduced a number of melodies effected by the Ivy Club, of Princeton, of which the bridegroom and most of his ushers were members.

The ushers were Mr. Hugh L. Wilson, Philadelphia; Mr. Marshall F. Mills, New York; Mr. H. Williamson Pell, New York; Mr. Gresham H. Poe, Baltimore; Mr. W. Augustus Steinyer, Pittsburgh; Mr. William A. Robinson, Pittsburgh; Mr. S. Duncanson, Washington; Mr. Edward C. Heald, Washington; Mr. Sevelton Brown, Chicago; Mr. George L. Huntress, Boston; Lieut. Victor Houston, of the United States navy.

They met the bride and her attendants at the church door and led the way to the altar to the music of Lohengrin. Miss Brown, who made an uncommonly pretty and graceful bride, wore a gown of rich cream satin with long full train, draped in old family lace, and high lace-trimmed bodice. Her tulle veil was fastened by a wreath of orange blossoms, and her bouquet a huge cluster of roses and lilies of the valley. She was escorted by her brother, Mr. Phelps Brown, who consisted her to the bridegroom's keeping at the chancel. The bride's attendants, who walked single file, were Miss Gertrude Brown, Miss Elsie Curtis, and Miss William Y. Bradley. All wore pink taffeta gowns made with demit train and round high bodice, the latter trimmed in cream lace. Their sleeves were full and graceful, ending at the elbow, where they were trimmed by pink gloves. Their bouquets were of white chrysanthemums, tied with pink ribbon. Large hats to match the gowns completed the very becoming costumes.

Mr. Andrew Y. Bradley was his brother's best man, Rev. Herbert Scott Smith read the betrothal service, after which the bride passed into the chancel, where Rev. Mr. Casey, of Cayuga, N. Y., conducted the marriage service; this ceremony being followed at the marriage of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Brown, the bride's mother, wore a gown of black velvet with V-shaped bodice, opening over old lace, both back and front, and becoming toque of velvet, trimmed in ostrich tips. Mrs. Brown was accompanied by her two small sons. The bridegroom's mother, who is still in mourning for her late husband, wore a gown of fine black grenadine, made with a skirt covered in three flounces, which were trimmed in dull black ribbon. Her toque was of black, worn with short net veil.

Other relatives present included the bride's two young brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Madeline Bradley, the Misses Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Heald, Miss Heald, Mrs. Healy, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Connors Shepley.

The reception, which followed the ceremony, was limited to the bridal party and immediate family, the reception cards issued with the wedding invitation being for Mondays in December, when Mr. and Mrs. Bradley will be at home at 2013 Q street.

Miss Sherman, daughter of the late general of the army, has returned to her apartment at Stoneleigh Court for the winter.

Mrs. Clinton Goodloe Edgar, of Detroit, is visiting her father, Judge McComas, at his residence on K street.

Mrs. Henry W. Fitch and the Misses Fitch returned Tuesday from Cazenovia, N. Y., to their new home on K street, near Seventeenth.

Dr. and Mrs. John Crayke Simpson, who went abroad during the past summer, are now in Paris, after a delightful visit in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watson, the former an attaché of the British Embassy, just returning from Lenox, have leased the residence 199 S street for the coming winter.

The marriage is announced of Miss Anne E. Taylor and Mr. William Stieling, on Wednesday, October 31, the ceremony taking place at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Frank C. Bates, of Boston, is the guest of her father, Mr. J. Van Ness Huyck. Mrs. Attwell, also a daughter of Mr. Huyck, and wife of Lieut. Commander Attwell, of the Argentine navy, is also in Washington, having returned to America in June, when Commander Attwell was assigned to special duty in New York.

The marriage ceremony of Miss Jeanette Meade and Mr. David J. Foley, both of this city, took place at St. Aloysius Church, Wednesday afternoon. After a Northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Foley will be temporarily located at 27 N street northwest after November 25, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

The board of lady managers of the House of the Good Shepherd, of which Mrs. Edward Douglas White is president.

Wedding Gifts

WE have made extraordinary preparations for this wedding season, and are showing many rare and beautiful articles designed especially for those desiring gifts of individuality and distinctiveness.

GALT & BRO.,

Established Over a Century,

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,

1107 Penna. Ave.

November 4 is the date, and The Washington Herald the paper.

announces that its annual tea and sale will take place Thursday, December 6, at Rauschers. As in past seasons, there will be a large and attractive assortment of high-class fancy gifts suitable for Christmas gifts, as well as an exhibition of the fine needlework, which is the principal industry of the home conducted by this order.

Mrs. W. A. Brannahl and son have returned from a pleasant visit to Galveston, Tex.

The Stonehill Jackson Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has perfected its plans for a large bazaar in aid of a Confederate monument at Arlington, to take place December 4 at the Confederate Veteran Hall, 1410 H street. This entertainment, which is planned along broader lines than anything yet undertaken by the society, will be under the direction of an entertainment committee, which includes Mrs. Drury C. Ludlow, Mrs. C. H. Fred, Mrs. Samuel Sprigg Bell, Mrs. Arthur E. Johnson, and Mrs. Rosalie H. Bockel, the last named the chairman.

The engagement is announced in Baltimore of Miss Gertrude Loney, daughter of Mr. Thomas P. Loney, of that city, and a niece of the Countess von Getzow, formerly of Washington, but now with her husband in Berlin, to Mr. Joseph Francis Body, of Philadelphia. The wedding will take place in December.

An enjoyable New England Halloween party of Wednesday evening, in addition to those already noticed, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connolly, at their home, on C street southwest, to a group of young people. Various games and tricks were indulged in by means of which glimpses into the future were to be ascertained.

The guests were met by a ghostly figure with a huge pumpkin jack-o'-lantern over his head, after the three mysterious taps were given, allow the visitor to enter. The apartments were lighted entirely with tapers, which gave the scene a weird, yet charming, appearance. The cutting of the cake of destiny resulted in Mr. Oliver Cleveland, the bridegroom, and Mrs. Serena Haygood, the bride, the couple being blessed, and Mr. Briscoe the coin of wealth. The bobbing for apples, the slicing of the flour pile, and the burning tapers also were indulged in. The closing game was the game of whist, in which the participants, crouched about the fire-place, were compelled to pick pumpkin seeds out of a pile of salt and mustard. This was a most amusing experience, and presented a strange, ridiculous picture to the host and hostess as spectators.

During the course of the evening refreshments were served according to the New England custom, on such an occasion, and at the witching hour of midnight the guests departed. Among those present were Miss Janet Stewart, Mrs. Serena Haygood, Miss Briscoe, Miss Sarah Willard Howe, Mr. Oliver Cleveland, Mr. Briscoe, and Mr. O'Keefe. The prize of the evening were captured by Miss Stewart and Mr. O'Keefe.

A pretty Halloween party was given Wednesday evening by Miss Marie Elscholtz, at her residence, 178 Fifth street northwest. A large number of friends attended, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The parlor was decorated in red and white bunting, hung in festoons around the walls of the room, and large lighted pumpkins were hung from the ceiling.

The festivities began at 8 o'clock and lasted until midnight. A large number of appropriate games were indulged in, and a musical programme, including both vocal and instrumental selections, was given. The evening's amusement was concluded with a series of five dances.

BURKE ROCHE ASKS DIVORCECharges Former Wife with Bigamy in Marrying Batony.*English Courts Refuse to Recognize Decree Obtained by Woman in Delaware.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 1.—Papers have been served on Mrs. Aurel Batony, formerly Mrs. Burke Roche, notifying her by her former husband, Hon. Burke Roche, of England, who is now living in France. It is understood that the grounds claimed by Mr. Burke Roche are bigamy.

The case is to be tried in England sometime this month. The English courts do not recognize the divorce which Mrs. Batony obtained in Delaware several years ago.

When seen at the Two-mile corner Farm this afternoon, Mrs. Batony made the following statement:

"I married in the United States, and after a very unhappy married life, obtained a divorce many years ago. I am an American citizen; I have nothing to do with laws outside of the United States. I am very much annoyed over this action."

Mrs. Batony, who is one of the best-known society women in the country, was married to Batony in New York in August of last year, and after spending the summer with her husband in Europe, they returned to Newport late in the fall, where they are now making their home. At the time of the separation of Mrs. Batony from her former husband, it was stated she was compelled to leave on account of her husband's treatment of her.

It is not likely she will take any action on the papers issued on her by her former husband, and will allow him to secure a divorce in English courts. She was legally divorced in the United States and legally married, and the charge made by Hon. Burke Roche would not be recognized by the courts of this country.

Hon. Burke Roche is living in France as a result of his action during the war between Russia and Japan, when he took a torpedo-boat and delivered it into the hands of the Russians, for which action he was compelled to leave the country.

Postpone Reception to Debutante.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 1.—Gov. and Mrs. Warfield will give the dance and reception in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Carrie Warfield, on the evening of November 27, instead of Thanksgiving Eve, as had been previously arranged, owing to the fact that several important social events in Baltimore are scheduled for the latter date. The function will be held at the executive mansion here.

William Randolph Hearst, the Man.

You know all about his newspapers, but there is much you do not know about Hearst himself, and the men who make his newspapers.

Read next Sunday's issue of The Washington Herald.

It will tell you about the men and the methods that have precipitated the bitterest and most notable campaign in the history of American politics.

November 4 is the date, and The Washington Herald the paper.

WATCH DENTIST CREWMen on Ship that Lost Silver Under Surveillance.*CAPTAIN SUSPECTS CUBANS

Reported Cops Have Been Located in Havana, and Prominent Society Women Mentioned in Connection with Theft—Will Be Given Opportunity to Restore Stolen Service.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—The League Island and Navy Yard was startled to-day when it was learned that the cruiser Denver, which reached here a few days ago, was minus four valuable silver cups. Each was a massive affair, worth probably $1,000, and all were gifts from the vessel's namesake city.

Every effort has been made to keep the news of the loss from becoming public, lest the thief might be able to cover his tracks. The inadvertent remarks of an ensign to a friend, however, revealed the facts in the case. Capt. Caldwell declared that the cups were missed after a ball which he and his officers had tendered Havana society on the night of October 24.

Say Cups Are Found in Havana.

Capt. Caldwell believed the silver was taken by some Cuban patriot, prompted by his love for things American. Secret Service men are working on the case both here and in Havana. Although Capt. Caldwell declares he does not think that any member of the crew had anything to do with the loss, the men are under surveillance. It is reported that it is known who took the silver cups from the Denver at the reception given on board that vessel the night before she left Havana. The persons who have the cups are also known. They will be given an opportunity to hand them over, and if they do not do so they will be arrested. The names of several women, who are more or less prominent in society, are mentioned in the gossip in connection with the affair.

Convoys for Hampton Roads.

The United States cruisers Tennessee and Washington left League Island to-day for Hampton Roads to act as convoys to the Louisiana, which will carry President Roosevelt to the Isthmus of Panama. The Tennessee is under command of Capt. A. G. Berry and the Washington under Capt. J. D. Adams. The cruisers will arrive at Hampton Roads to-morrow.

The Louisiana, as well as the escort cruisers, has had the wireless telegraph outfit put in thorough condition that the President may keep in close touch with all conditions in the country while she is at sea.

New Jersey Sails North.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 1.—The battle ship New Jersey sailed this morning from Old Point for Boston. During the trip she will be given her twenty-four-hour endurance test.

The cruiser West Virginia arrived at Old Point from Southern waters this morning. The table was set for a dinner which during her recent endurance trial the battleship Louisiana suffered some damage to her machinery, and that she will have to be overhauled at the Brooklyn navy yard before proceeding to Panama with President Roosevelt.

Want to Harbor the Virginia.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 1.—To win the honor of harboring the battle ship Virginia when that vessel shall come for the ceremony of receiving the silver service given her by the State of Virginia, this city and Portsmouth, on the one side, and Newport News, on the other, are engaged in a vigorous contest. At present Newport News, a city in which the ship was built, has a long lead for the prize. Mayor Euton, of that city, and a delegation of citizens having persuaded Gov. Swanson to write to the Secretary of the Navy asking that Newport News be designated for the purpose.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PEACOCK.Remains to be Laid to Rest in Philadelphia Cemetery To-day.

The remains of Mrs. Virginia Tatum Marshall Peacock, whose funeral occurred from her late residence, 266 Ontario avenue, yesterday afternoon, will be interred to-day beside those of her husband in Woodlands Cemetery, in West Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Peacock, who was the widow of John Brooks Peacock, a prominent banker and financier of Philadelphia, came to Washington twenty-one years ago and lived here until her death. She was married to her husband in 1885, and they had three children. She was a member of the Quaker and Huguenot societies, and when left a widow with five children and suffering financial reverses at the time of her husband's death, she displayed remarkable courage and bravery. In her work in the Interior Department she developed a system which has received widespread commendation.

Mrs. Peacock was a prominent member of the Martha Washington Chapter, D. A. R., and took an enthusiastic interest in the work accomplished by that organization. She possessed a dignity and charm of person which attracted admiration and respect, and her success served only to augment.

Higginson Runners at Leesburg.

Leesburg, Va., Nov. 1.—Mr. A. Henry Higginson, of Boston, Mass., arrived in Leesburg this morning with twenty-five horses and sixty hounds. They will remain here for three months, during which time there will be plenty of fox hunting and similar sports.

Teeth Examined Free

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

Re-examining saves a lot of teeth. The Washington Painless Dentists.

SYNDICATE GETS MORE LAND.Two New Pieces of Property Acquired in Big Deal.

According to information received from a reliable source, the agents of the syndicate who are securing options upon property in the square bounded by Seventh, K, and Sixth streets and New York avenue northwest have made substantial progress within the past week toward the realization of the scheme.

It was announced yesterday that a prominent merchant on Seventh street, who owned three three-story brick dwellings in the square, had sold them at a high figure, the price reported being in the neighborhood of $20,000. An individual holder of the property at 615 K street was also announced to have closed with the syndicate for $8,500, the original offer for the property being $1,000.

Two or three other pieces of property in the square are yet to be purchased, beside the options originally secured at $4 a square foot, including the holdings recently purchased by an outsider, on the northwest corner of Sixth and K streets. Among the rumors now current regarding the ultimate use of the property is added a story to the effect that the square, with the one fronting on Massachusetts avenue, is being sought by a corporation which intends to build a big brewery there. Like the story that the land is being sought for a new central market, for a department store, or for a big hotel, this of the brewery cannot be verified, as those who are parties to the deal, and who know the purpose for which it is to be used, will not reveal it at this time. None of the stories has been contradicted by those who are informed as to the plans of the corporation, so the one given as well founded as another, but that a scheme is on foot of large proportions cannot be doubted from the persistency shown by the parties bent upon securing control of the property.

COURTS-MARTIAL ON INCREASEJudge Advocate General Reports Many Convictions in Navy.*Officers and Men Alike Pay Penalty. Absence Without Leave Chief Cause for Complaint.

In his annual report, submitted yesterday to the Judge Advocate General, the judge of the courts-martial and courts of inquiry for the fiscal year ended June 30 there were held in the navy 1,591 general courts-martial and 5,358 summary courts-martial. The increase in general courts-martial was 33, or about 55 per cent. Of the cases tried by general court-martial, 13 were commissioned officers of the navy, of whom 12 were convicted and one acquitted, but in this case there was a disapproval.

Three commissioned officers of the Marine Corps and three midshipmen in service were tried and convicted. Twelve cadets at the Naval Academy were convicted and one acquitted. Of the enlisted men of the navy tried by general court-martial, 1,187 were convicted and 15 acquitted. Of the summary courts-martial, in which there were 5,358 cases of enlisted men, there were 4,071 convictions and 1,287 acquittals. Of the Marine Corps, there were 1,121 convictions and 35 acquittals.

The principal offenses and convictions under each of the general courts-martial were: desertion, 148; absence without leave, 206; fraudulent enlistment, 148; fraudulent enlistment and desertion, 46; refusing to obey orders, 84; mutiny, 2; attempt to kill, 2; assault with deadly weapon, 10; unnatural crimes, 4.

New Paymaster for the Navy.

Rear Admiral H. T. B. Harris, retired, has been relieved from the duties of paymaster general and chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts. He has been succeeded by Pay Director E. D. Rogers. Admiral Harris, however, will retain his position as chairman of the subcommittee on the personnel, which has charge of the disposition of certain features of the report of the board concerning the pay corps.

Plans for Big Battle Ship.

Secretary Bonaparte yesterday opened plans in accordance with a circular sent out inviting naval constructors to submit designs for the battle ship contemplated by the action of the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress. Four designs were received from outsiders and two from the bureau of construction of the Navy Department. Action was reserved.

Midshipman Redman Resigns.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 1.—The resignation of Ernest R. Redman, a member of the third class of midshipmen at the naval academy, has been accepted by the Navy Department. Redman resigned on account of physical disability.

ARMY ORDERS.Retirement.

By direction of the President, Lieut. Col. Charles G. Scott, Eighth Infantry, is retired from active service.

Leaves of Absence.

The leave of absence granted First Lieut. Bruno T. Scher, Third Infantry, in special orders, No. 134, June 28, 1906, War Department, is extended two months.

Special Orders.

First Lieut. Frederick W. Hunsley, Jr., Ordnance Department, will make a tour of duty in the Philippines during the months of November and December, 1906, to the works of Queen & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., on official business pertaining to the inspection of ordnance material in process of manufacture.

NAVAL VESSEL MOVEMENTS.

Arrived: Princeton, at Mare Island, from San Francisco.
Sailed: Dixie, from Monte Cristi for Hampton Roads; Washington, from Baltimore, Maryland, and Pennsylvania, from Philadelphia, to Boston, from Norfolk to cruise; Blakely, from Richmond to cruise; Mayflower, from yard, New York, for Washington.